

I strongly support the right for XM Radio to offer local content. I cannot imagine why anyone elected official would think otherwise except for lining their own pockets with the bribes of lobbyists.